27 MAY 1960

Honorable Peter W. Rodino, Jr.
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rodino:

Thank you for your letter of 18 May 1960 enclosing Form 57 for [redacted]

Mr. [redacted] visited our personnel office in March and reviewed his background and employment interests with our senior interviewer. We were unable to encourage his interest at that time because of our limited requirements for logistical specialists and suggested to him that he inquire about opportunities with the General Services Administration. He was invited to complete application forms so that we might explore possibilities for him here in related fields but we have not heard further from him.

We shall be glad to consider his Form 57 in light of our current personnel needs and advise you of the results.

Sincerely,
